Foreword

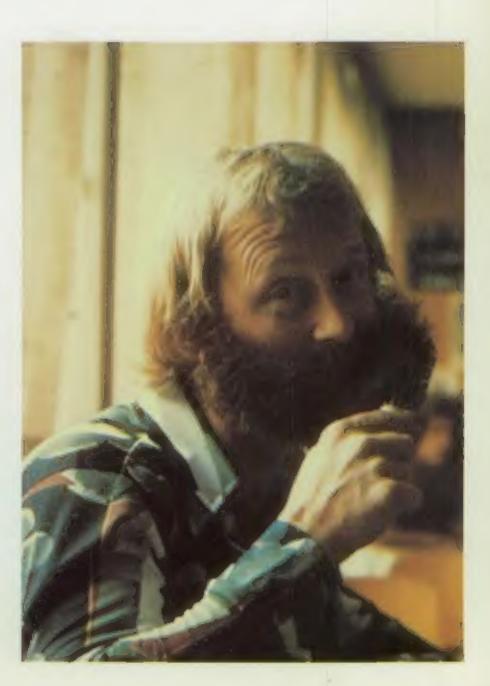

In our years at Cedar Cliff we strive to attain a way of life that will not only be suitable for ourselves, but also accepted by society. While trying to achieve this goal, we cannot lose sight of our personal attitudes. We, the staff of the Cedar Log '76, feel that just as our ancestors did 200 years ago, we must also "go it alone" and not rely on other's initiative. We have to take every chance available, to explore every opportunity, in order to live and create a better life. For us, this is just the beginning.

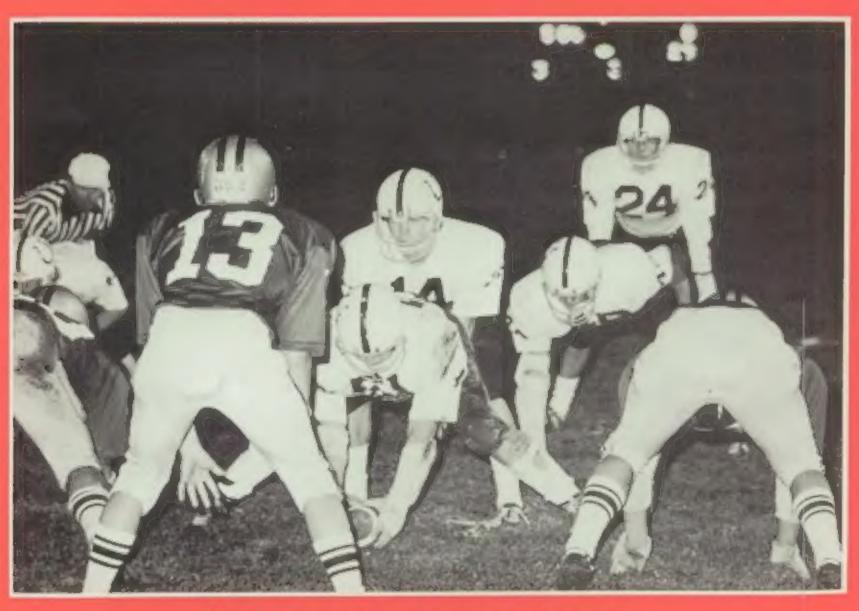

Challenge to be different

We found that just as 200 years ago people met the same kind of challenges . . .

Challenge to fight for what we believe in ready to support our fellow man

not being afraid to express our attitudes

The people who founded our country knew they would have to prepare standards that must work not only for the present but also for the rest of the country's history.

Homecoming

Despite a disappointing loss to Bishop McDevitt, the sixteenth annual Homecoming celebration was a great success for all Cedar Cliff fans and alumni. At halftime, Carol Straitiff was crowned C.C.'s Homecoming Queen by Mr. Edwards and Deb Wicks, 1974 Homecoming Queen. Her court included Julie Bihl, Diane Christmas, Mary Colteryahn, Deb Deckman, Terri Piccolo, and Bea Twigg. Carol was recrowned the following evening at the Homecoming Dance, which was held in the gym

Students Elect Brenda Smith Miss Cedar Cliff

Brenda Smith was elected by the student body as Cedar Cliff's representative to the 1975 Youth Festival Along with honored teens from other area high schools, she attended a dinner and fashion show at the Capital City Mall. Highlighting her reign as Youth Festival Queen, Brenda and her escort, Bob Ortenzio, attended the 1975 Youth Festival Dance on November 29

Up With People came to Cedar Cliff in two sensational assembly programs on Tuesday, November 11. This exciting, colorful kaleidoscope of music and dance featured a wide variety of music. In a never-to-be forgotten finale, faculty members were "dragged" to the stage while cheering students clapped and sang

Up With People

Talented Seniors Present "The Skin Of Our

"The Skin of Our Teeth," the 1975-76 senior class play, was expertly performed on December 11 and 12 with leading roles portrayed by Judi Corlett and John Davison. Working with a cast of over twenty seniors, Mrs. Juditz, faculty advisor, and Laurie Lucas, student director, presented a fine dramatic performance. Also aiding in the success of the show was the stage crew, who provided excellent lighting and scenery

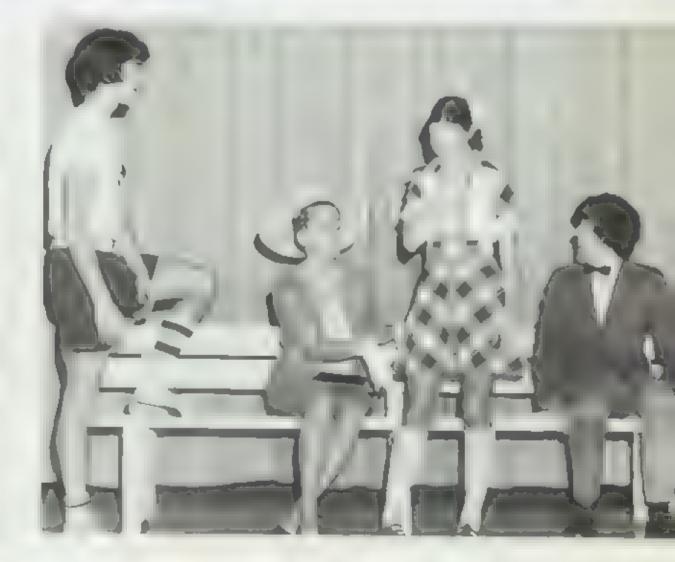

White Christmas Queen And Court. Deb Kunkle, Cindie Vokes. Ann Benjegerdes, Darlene Hummell, Deb Prescott Carol Miller Chris Saurman

White Christmas Formal

Cedar Cliff's annual White Christmas Formal, held at the West Shore Country Club, featured the crowning of the 1975-76 Snow Queen, Darlene Hummell. The members of this year's court were nominated by the senior class, and the queen was later chosen by the C.C. student body. Entertained by the music of the Joe Hojak Quartet, the many students who attended found December 29 a very memorable evening

"Techers" are a special breed of student! Only a unique, determined individual would volunteer for an additional 30 minute bus ride after finally arriving at C.C. in the morning Only a "techer" could tolerate the ride back at lunch-time after an entire morning studying selected vocations at Cumberland-Perry Vo-tech School 167 students are proud to be cared C.C.'s "techers."

Two Paulas Celebrate '76 At C.C.

Two very special Bicentennial tourists arrived in the United States in 1975 Cedar Cliff welcomed these tourists as exchange students this school year Paulina Perez from Ecuador and Paula Taavitsainen from Finland. Their respective hosts were the Fastrich family and the Reber family. As always, the B.E.S.T. club lived up to its initials: Bringing Exchange Students Together

The Little Colts ground out a 6-2 winning season this year under coaches Steve King and Bill Jones. Captains Bruce Adams, Don Brogan, Rich Pugh, and Tim Stahl led the squad in breaking the school record for the fewest points scored against them. The sophomore gridmen also tied the C.C. record for compiling the most shut-outs in one season

With all the C.C. linksmen returning from last year, the 1975 golf team was gifted with experience this season. Led by co-captains Lee Turner and John Straub, they clinched the league championship with relative ease. On the way, the linksmen broke the league record for total points compiled by one team. Coach Wayne Howell guided the team to Cedar Cliff's seventh straight winning season and the third league championship in Cedar Cliff history.

Road Runners Race To Winning Season

With five lettermen returning from last season, Coach John Kambic was smiling more often as the harriers ran to a 8-3 record. Junior Bill O'Keefe and Captain Ed Runkle placed fifth and sixth on Cedar Cliff's list of top ten record times. The cross country team broke course records at York Central and C.D. East while completing its winning season.

Under the enthusiastic coaching of Bob Craig and Bill Jones, the C.C. matmen completed their sixteenth consecutive winning season. Although only three varsity wrestlers returned from last year, the team showed strength and agility. Highlighting the year was Coach Craig's 200th victory as a wrestling coach and the selection of senior Dave Harris to the area Big 12 wrestling team

Varsity Bounces Back;

Five frustrating losses by one or two prevented the varsity from having an excellent season. Three straight losses at the beginning of the season were completely reversed by a winning streak to end the year, Captain John Fales, high scorer for the Colts, and veteran Coach Bob Pavlovich led the team to second place in the second half of the league season

With the help of last year's J.V.'s and three returning starters, the girls' varsity basketball team bettered last year's record. Led by tri-captains Mary Colteryahn, Ginny Roth, and Kathy Thomas, Coach Straw's team displayed stamina, spirit, and a lot of hustle. The J.V.'s coached by Mrs. Wayne, lost only one game this season, showing great promise for next year's varsity squad.

New Sport Splashes Into C.C. Athletic Scene

1976 marked the fourth consecutive season that Cedar Cliff has been represented in PIAA Swimming and Diving. Two divers, Sue Stoup and Carol Sims; and three swimmers, Nancy Niedenthal, Todd Deckman, and Dawn Gifford; participated this year in District III competition, the stepping-stone to state finals. Although it's a new sport for the school, C.C. is well represented by its team.

Gymnasts Make Winning A Routine

With new coach Elizabeth Gregory, the C.C. gymnastics team leaped to another successful season in competition Starting practices in the beginning of December, the girls began polishing their routines for interscholastic meets. At the Tri-County Gymnastics meet held on January 24 at Cumberland Valley, Shelby Stephens, captain of the gymnasts, placed third in advanced all-around competition and Kelly Thomas, a junior, won third place all-around in the intermediate division.

Cheerleaders

The Cedar Cliff Cheerleaders, a ten member varsity squad and an eight member J.V. squad, sparked spirit in Colt fans this year at all football games, basketball games, and wrestling matches. Headed by DeeDee Shick, captain, and Carol Miller, co-captain, the cheerleaders also attended a two week workshop, held regular summer practices, attended a cheerleading clinic, and helped at C.C. Relays and wrestling tournaments

C.C. BAND

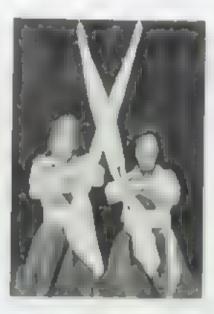

Audiences throughout the central Pennsylvania area applauded the exciting halftime shows performed by the Cedar Cliff High School Marching Unit. Directed and arranged by Mr. Gary Ulrich and Mr. Jack Krone, the program featured several Bicentennial selections During football season, the 104-member band and the 54-member bandfront displayed their talents at numerous competitions and parades. In June, the marching unit will travel to New York for a national competition

Debate Team

The national topic, "Should the development and allocation of scarce world resources be controlled by an international organization?" was expertly discussed this year by the Cedar Cliff Debate Team. Co-captained by John Wolfe and Steve Robertson, the team debated with thirteen area high schools. A special Bicentennial Debate took place in January at the University of Pennsylvania in which Steve Robertson, John Wolfe, Liz Sandnes, and Craig Little participated

Thespians

In addition to hosting the PHSSI Drama Festival at Cedar Cliff in January, the International Theater Troupe 1362, led by President Kathy Kessler, assisted throughout the year with various theatrical productions. The presentations this year included the junior and senior class plays, Repertory Theater, the operetta, and the melodrama. Installation of new Thespian members took place in January and May under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Juditz

Apprentices

The annual presentation of the Apprentice Drama Club this year was "The Town That Couldn't Have Christmas." Directed by junior lewis Shaw, the show was successfully performed at Bethany Village and the Senior Citizens Club in New Cumberland. Supervised by Mrs. Juditz, the club is designed to teach students the basic skills and techniques of theater arts

Letter Of Commendation

Youth And Government

Campus Life

The Class of '76 maintained Cedar Cliff's tradition of scoring well in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Four semi-finalists and fourteen recipients of Letters of Commendation were definite proof of academic excellence. Less than 2% of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1976 are awarded Letters of Commendation.

Sponsored by the YMCA, Youth and Government is an organization in which students from all over the state participate. Meeting every Monday night, the group, under delegation leader Eric Amig, wrote sample bills and prepared for sessions in student legislature. In April, C.C.'s Youth and Government spent a weekend at the capitol learning the complicated procedures of the legislature and state government

Meeting every Tuesday night, the members of the Campus Life Club shared various Christian experiences and beliefs. The club, under the direction of Mr Sale and Mr. Paxton, is a branch of the Harrisburg Area Youth for Christ. This year members sponsored their annual Pizza Bash in Cedar Cliff's cafeteria A roller skating party was also held on the first Monday of every month

German

Under the guidance of Frau Linda Roberts, the German Club provided students with insight into the culture of the German people. President Sara Freestone provided leadership for the success of the organization along with Scott Myers, vice president; Lisa Basehore, secretary; and Kathy Brown, treasurer. To culminate the year's activities, members took a field trip to New York and held their annual German banquet

Latin

Advised by Mrs. Klaiber, the Latin Club held meetings every Tuesday to plan weekly activities. Films were shown by se lected speakers to acquaint the members with languages based upon Latin. A bowling party and a Roman Banquet were the high points of the year. In April, some of the members travelled to Italy to learn more about the country and its culture

51 Club

Providing food for many hungry sports fans, the 51 Club managed the concession stands during all Cedar Cliff football games, basketball games, and wrestling matches. Supervised by Mr. John Bennie, the 51 Club also had the responsibility of selling football programs. A field trip at the end of the year rewarded the club for its much appreciated efforts

French Club

Supervised by Mrs. Dorothy Mc-Cormick and President Dave Schankweiler, the French Club ended a very active year. Most of the weekly meetings were used to plan fund-raising projects to finance a spring trip to Canada Club members hung a Christmas wreath on the school and travelled to Hershey to see Marcel Marceau To celebrate the Bicentennial, the club participated in the International Language Fair held at Cedar Cliff

Spanish Club

Sponsoring bake sales and participating in the International Language fair were the main activities of the Spanish Club this year. To be eligible for membership, a student must have taken Spanish for three semesters and must attain an over-all average of 90%. Advisors Senora Dobbs and Senora Kellar familiarized the members with customs and geography of Spain, Central and South America. 1976 was concluded with the annual Spanish Dinner

Library Club

Contributing an important service to the school, the Library Club members provided constant assistance to Cedar Cliff's librarians, Mrs Rogowicz and Mrs. Mourton, advisor of the club. These students worked in the library during their study hall periods and after school As an added responsibility, the Library Club offered aid to Highland Elementary School librarians for the first time.

G.A.A.

For the first time in G.A.A. history, involvement in interscholastic sports was not necessary for membership. The new president of the Girls' Athletic Association, Ginny Roth, and Becky Blair, vice-president, planned meetings with other schools for games of volleyball and powder puff football. As a group project, a showcase displaying trophies won by C.C.'s female athletes was set up with the help of advisors Miss Straw and Mrs. Wayne

Stage Crew

In addition to building and painting sets, the stage crew supplied lighting and sound effects for numerous Cedar Cliff theatrical productions this year. Also providing their services during assemblies and stage events, the stage crew worked under the direction of Mr. Rogowicz. 1975-76 officers included Mike Smith, president; Kathy Kessler, vice-president; Lynn Croteau, secretary; and Frank Konhaus, treasurer

Key Club

Sponsoring community projects was the objective of the Key Club this year. Advised by Rick Zeiders, members held a Pancake Jamboree at the Lemoyne Fire Hall, a Christmas party at the Methodist Home for the elderly, and a bike hike for crippled children. Youth Forum

Under the leadership of Kim Conti. Youth Forum representative for Cedar Cliff, interested students united to discuss issues relevant to the youth of today. Following the Bicentennial theme, "So our children can tell their children. what we accomplished," the right to privacy and gun control laws were reviewed. The successful year was highlighted on January 14 when area students met at Middletown High School for Youth Forum Day

Health Careers

Directed by Mrs. Edith Morgan, Cedar Cliff's school nurse, the Health Careers Club is designed to acquaint students with the various medical professions offered after high school. The 1975-76 club officers included Lori Hunter, president; Robin Peiffer, vice president; Kim Leaman, secretary; and Lisa Belford, treasurer. This year, along with sponsoring a sub-sale and making sunshine boxes for hospitalized children, the club took several field trips to health institutions.

Club periods usually consisted of thirty minutes of instruction and forty-five minutes of playing time. These five members enjoy the game so much that they persuaded their advisors to continue sponsoring the Bridge Club, now C.C.'s smallest after-school club

Business Club

A better understanding of business procedures was the major objective of this year's Business Club. Faculty advisors, Mrs. Gail Hossier and Mrs. Ruth Roadarmel, and student officers Tammy Swab, president; and Sue Shoop, vice president; presided over meetings that were held every other Tuesday. Listening to guest speakers and visiting local business firms were the main activities of the club

Choir

Beginning with the Christmas Concert, the choir, directed by Mr. Virgil Hostetler, brought beautiful music to Cedar Cliff. This spring, instead of the traditional operetta performance the bicentennial year was celebrated with the production of the musical George M. For the first time in C.C history, the Cedar Cliff and Red Land High School choirs combined their talents to present the bicentennial salute

Where a star quenched on high
For ages would its light,
Still travelling downward from the sky
Shine on our mortal sight

Repertory Theatre

Drama, comedy, and mystery were the themes of the three one-act plays presented by this year's Repertory Theatre on March 13 in the C.C. auditorium. "Day after Forever," "Not Enough Rope," and "Fright" were also performed at Lebanon Valley College, Bucks County Playhouse, and Bishop McDevitt High School. Staged entirely by students, the plays were directed by Thespians Lynn Croteau, John Davison, and Craig Little.

Invisible Rabbit . . . A Visible

Success For Juniors

On February 27 and 28, Cedar Cliff's junior class presented "Harvey," a comedy by Mary Chase The star of the show was an invisible rabbit named Harvey. His best friend, Elwood P. Dowd, was played by Lewis Shaw Other leading roles were portrayed by Dave Schankweiler, Chip Savidge, Liz Hawley, and Matt Soto. As proof of the play's success, "Harvey" netted juniors a profit for the first time in years.

"George M." Joins C.C. And

Red Land For Bi-Centennial

The talents of both Cedar Cliff and Red Land were combined in the production of "George M" on May 5, 6, 7, and 8. The main character was portrayed by Doug Murdoch, with supporting roles played by Amy Personette, Tony Barr, Judy Kessler, Deb Herr, Kathy Kessler, Laurie Lucas, and Craig Little. Under the direction of Mr. Virgil Hostetler and Mrs. Lillian Juditz, co-operation overcame rivalry and the Bicentennial play drew crowds for four consecutive performances

"George M." Draws Record Crowds

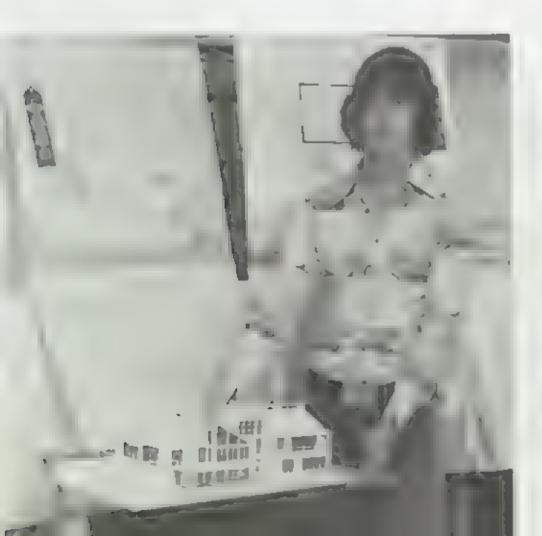

Skillful artistry was proudly exhibited as Cedar Cliff held its 12th annual Industrial Arts Display. Presented in conjunction with the operetta, the display was viewed by many students and parents. The 1976 trophy winners were Jim Davis, architectural drawing; Eric Matthews, electronics; Fred Wendling, metal-working; and Vince Ruminski, woodworking

Coach Repetz Leads Colts

For the second consecutive year, C.C.'s varsity baseball team came within one game of the South Central League championship. This year the hard-ballers lost to Bishop McDevitt 9-6 in the playoff game. Coach Repetz led the squad from the league basement after an 0-3 start to a first place tie at the end of the regular season. A seven game winning streak in the league sparked the Colts' march from last to first.

With five starters returning from last year's squad, Coach Oldham had little trouble leading the girls' tennis team to a winning season. The girls dropped three matches early in the season but bounced back to place third in the South Central League. The 1976 net-women broke the record by playing fourteen matches in one season and took second in C.C. winning with nine victories.

Opening the 1976 tennis season with three straight victories, the Colts looked like a league powerhouse. Unfortunately, a three game losing streak followed, and a season-ending five game losing streak drove the netmen to the sidelines with their second straight losing season. Captain Jeff Boyer, a junior, and Willis Kocher, team coach, hope for a more successful season in '77 with five of the six lettermen returning.

Boys' Track

C.C. track fans watched proudly as the boys' track team trotted to its 10th straight winning season. Leading the pack was sprint specialist Dave Natale, who finished 5th and 6th in the state in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. The relay team of Greg Hein, Brian Gross, Frank Kambic, and Steve Murray set a school record by clocking 68.4 in the shuttle hurdles.

Girls' Track

Coached by Mr. Jim Davis, the C.C. girls' track team raced to a 3-1-1 record, only three points short of a perfect season. Under the leadership of Darlene Hummell, Mary Colteryahn, Marianne Tezak, and Faith Polito, the junior-dominated squad broke 12 of 14 existing school records. Ending the season with finesse, the 880 relay team captured first place at the C.C. Relays and third place in states.

The 1976 girls' softball team experienced a record-breaking season this year, hitting the most homeruns and compiling the best team batting average in C.C. history. The girls, led by seniors Ginny Roth and Beth Mann, placed third in the South Central League and finished with a 10-5 record. Winning the Lower Dauphin Tournament on May 1 highlighted the year for Coach Wayne's young team.

Junior-Senior Prom

A beautiful starry evening provided a romantic setting for Cedar Cliff's fifth annual Junior-Senior Prom. The gala event was held at the Penn Harris Motor Inn on May 22, 1976. Couples waltzed, bumped, and bunny-hopped to the music of the Herm Miller Orchestra. Toward midnight, couples set out for an evening of all-night parties and entertainment.

The Bicentennial class of Cedar Cliff High School graduated on June 8 with Commencement held in the West Shore Stadium. Honoring this special year, the Class of '76 wore medallions and the girls also carried a red rose. After speeches were given by selected students, the twelve year wait was over. Diplomas were awarded by Dr. Nathan Chesler, assisted by Mr Witmer and Mr. McGee. Surprise speeches, soap bubbles, and fireworks typified the class motto, "The Spirit of '76."

A Century Of Teaching Leaves Cedar Cliff In 1976

Cedar Cliff lost 117 years of teaching experience this year with the retirement of five faculty members. Mrs. Dorothy Klaiber has contributed 18 years to the betterment of the Latin Department. The Business Department will miss the services of Stanley Fred Bollen, Business Math teacher for 19 years, and Robert Deck, department chairman and teacher for 29 years. Mr. L.P. Williams, head of the Music Department and Operetta Director, devoted 30 years to the students. The Home Economics Department will lose Mrs. Beatrice McConnell after 21 years of teaching. All five have been a part of C.C. since the school opened; all five have imprinted C.C. with their examples, their teachings, and their personalities.
